

AVM Resource Planning Group Volunteer

Purpose

To support the development of AVM's online resource library for AVM members. This role has a national impact by supporting the growth and development of AVM's membership offer which will better connect, develop and empower volunteer managers across multiple sectors.

Benefits

- Opportunity to create, share and develop a range of resources that will support volunteer management professionals
- Strengthen your professional network and professional development
- Be a key part of the UK's biggest voice, resource and network for people who manage volunteers and volunteer programmes

Role

- Evaluate existing resources to determine their relevance, usefulness and accessibility
- Decide how resources are categorised and packaged on the AVM website and determine a priority order
- Contribute towards the creation of new resource packs including key topic areas and format by creating something from scratch or researching existing materials that could be incorporated

Who is AVM looking for?

- Those with a current understanding of trends and topics of interest in volunteer management
- Those with an interest in supporting the volunteer management profession
- Anyone who is happy to share their knowledge and insights on volunteer management practices

Main contact: Head of Business Development

Expected commitment: 1hr meetings 6-8 times a year plus 1-2 hours a month working on reviewing, researching or creating resources for AVM.
