Volunteer Voices: Call for your volunteers to speak at the AVM Conference 2024

Do you have a volunteer who is passionate, a great communicator and likes public speaking? Someone who has a volunteering story to tell and is happy to share their experience and opinions with volunteer leaders from across the UK?

We are looking for panellists to sit on our Behind the Scenes: Candid Conversations with Dedicated Volunteers panel at our upcoming conference in October 2024.

This one hour panel will showcase the authentic voices of volunteers from across the UK, shedding light on their diverse range of experiences and exploring lesser-discussed facets of volunteerism.

Whether serving as a source of inspiration and encouragement, a valuable reminder, or a gentle prompt to reflect on one's own practices, these volunteers' insightful perspectives, emotive testimonies and candid reflections are set to provoke thought and evoke emotion.
